

Word from the Lord given by Brad Brede

July 17, 2016

“The prayers. The prayers. The prayers! Prayers are effectual. Prayers make tremendous power available! Prayers... prayers for the people! Prayers for the Nations. As they go forth... they are effectual. Revival shall come because of the prayers of the Church. Nations shall turn to God because of the prayers of the Church. And so never... never think light of that in which you do... that in which you give your time. Sometimes what to you seems like not much... ‘Not much was given... not much was accomplished...’ but the prayers are effectual!

It’s important... it’s important now during this time – there is so much. You sense it in your hearts. You sense this great shaking in the spiritual realm... you sense that there is about something that is going to happen soon! Give yourself to prayer...give yourself to prayer - knowing that your prayers are effectual. As you yield to Him... the Anointing shall come... the Anointing shall come to empower you to pray in ways in which you have never experienced before. And you’ll move out into areas of the Spiritual realm in which you’ll know things Supernaturally concerning People’s... concerning Nations. As you give yourself to that – that equipping by the Holy Spirit will cause you to be a vessel mightily used by God.”

Word from the Lord given by Pastor Vern

July 17, 2016

Jesus is asking... now He is speaking: “Do you love Me? Do you love Me? To truly love Me - you need to Love what I love. Do you love what I love? Do you seek what I seek? Are you thrilled with what thrills me? Do you love me? The greatest harmony... the greatest unity comes between individuals who love the same things. The greatest affection... the greatest commitment to each other – when people are focused on and love the same things – there is a bond, there is a unity, there is a care for each other. There is a protection of each other. When people are in harmony with what their affections and passions are set upon... the relationship takes care of itself. It just builds and grows and mushrooms. Do you love what I love?

See this is why My Word says, to love me you cannot love the World. My Word says, the things of this world are not what I love. And if your affections and your passions and your longings and desires are placed on those things, you are focused on something that I am not focused on. So the harmony, the agreement, the unity and oneness between you and I will shrink.

That's why I said in My Word, love God with ALL your heart, soul, mind and strength. And to be a friend of the world will put you into a position eventually where you can even become my enemy.

So I ask you again just to challenge you... do you love Me? Do you love what I love? Do you even know and understand what I love? For many the picture that has been painted of me, and who I am and what I crave and long for... has been so skewed by tradition and religion – that many of My People really don't understand what excites Me - what thrills Me - what lights Me up! Many don't understand what I love and what I'm passionate about and I long for. But I will explain it to you if you ask Me to. I will show you from My Word.

I am passionate about seeing My People victorious in every area of their life. I came and died to give them the right and the power to totally walk above any restrictions of this earth. I am passionate about seeing people's lives so changed... so free... so full of the Kingdom of My Father. That I CRAVE after it... for not only you but for the entire world. Every being on this earth. I crave for them to walk in the freedom and the fullness of the Kingdom. I love that! I love to watch My People sing and dance and shout and be joyful! My heart breaks when you do not walk in victory. I take no pleasure in that. I love seeing My People rise above the circumstances of this world. Above the situations... above the problems. That ignites me! I'm passionate about that! I love seeing My People work with each other, walk with each other, commune with each other, help each other, pick each other up and bring the whole Body to a place of overcoming. That excites me as your Lord and your Master. I love that!

I love it when My Spirit is alone with you and speaks to you, teaches you, prepares you and guides you. Takes of what is Mine and reveals it to you. I crave and long for those intimate moments that you have with My Spirit. I love that.

And I love seeing people shake off the bondages that this earth and tradition and men and religion try to put on people. I love to see them shake them off. To praise and worship Me with Freedom! Disregarding anything anyone may say or think... making Me God, not them god, making Me God. I LOVE IT! Because now the way is open for Me to show myself to you as God. You opened it!

I grieve when I watch people who are not free to worship and praise Me. They don't understand how to enter in or they don't want to enter in. They feel awkward. They feel strange... it grieves me. I don't love that. But to see your hands in the air... to see tears roll down your face... to see communion with Me.... I love that. I love that.

I love giving you what pleases you and brings pleasure to you. Did I not say in My Word that I provide all things for your pleasure? Humble is not doing without and feeling bad and feeling low and feeling down... humble is receiving what I've got for you and acknowledging you have nothing to do with it. But it was Me. Because I love you. I want nothing but the best for you. I love you. I want nothing but the best for you and your marriage and your family and this community and this state and this world. I love you! And that's what I mean by 'I love you...' I want nothing but the best for you. I am interested in what you're interested in. I'm interested in your plans, I'm interested in your goals, I'm interested in your priorities. I take notice – I take notice with every plan you make – I take notice. I'm interested in you because I love you. And My Heart's desire is that you follow My Spirit and let Him lead you in all these things. Lead you in every plan, lead you in every priority you set, lead you in every step, lead you in every thought. And getting rid of, and shedding those things that are not of My Kingdom – I don't love those things. Those things will kill you and destroy you. Those things will bring grief and trouble and problems to you. I don't love those things.

But I love, I love when My People walk in the fullness of Salvation and they're happy and they're hopeful and they're content and they're inspired and they are lit up with what I am pursuing. And my Glory get's shown to a world who so desperately needs what I gave and what you have the capability of living in and handing on to them.”