

Prophecy given at Word of Life

By: Pastor Vern Peltz

Sunday 2/4/2007

"I am your God. Walk before me and be blameless, says the Lord of Hosts. You search here... you search there for the answers for your life, but you are not pressing toward me. I said walk before me and be blameless. All the ways you're seeking after, all the ideas of your mind, all the thoughts that you look to as maybe this will answer my situation, maybe this will take care of my problem. If these things don't have me in the center of them, they will not answer your problem. They will not fix your situation. They will not bring about the peace, they will not bring about the rest and the restoration that you are looking for. Walk before me and be blameless. Learn to make me your God. Learn to make me the center of your plans, the center of what you say, the center of what you do. Make me the direction that you go toward. Yes, there are things in this world that you can do, but if I am not part of them, if I am not in the middle of them, it won't work for you. So quit trying to make it work your way. It's not working your way. Walk before me and be blameless, says the Lord."