“I call forth the people who are hungry for more of me!” (Jim speaks himself: This is, I want to reemphasize, this is like the Spirit of the Lord, that is not standing announcing to this area, all this area round about, and I am going to go three hundred sixty degrees all the way around). “To the North, the South, the East and the West: I call forth the people who are hungry for more of me, saith The Lord, who want to really know me as I am. To them I say: come forth! Bring your hungry hearts, bring your hurt hearts, bring your talents, bring your abilities, bring your inabilities, bring your insecurities and lay them down at my feet. For I desire to give you new abilities formed and shaped by my hand - that are tailor made for you. I have that water of life. It is awaiting to quench your thirst for salvation and an abundance of my Holy Spirit for you.

This next section of people: I call forth the servant workers for my Kingdom. Bring even your insecurities, your defeats, your mistakes and lay them at my feet. For I desire to raise you up as new men and women of God to do a work that may be new to you. My vision is such that your old ways of ministering and flowing may not suffice, so I will re-tool you with a greater anointing, a greater skill sent from heaven. (Jim Speaking: Thank you Lord, Thank you Jesus, Thank you Lord, send them forth, bring them forth Lord, we call them forth in the Spirit, those that are hungry, those that are servant workers we call them forth in Jesus name.)

Here's another segment:

“I call forth leaders,” (Jim Speaking: I call them in the Spirit in my own, I call them pillars. Pillars of the Church of God), I call forth leaders from near and far to come. Come here for the restoration that I have planned. The restoration that I have planned needs your help. And it needs your years of Wisdom. Be ready for heaven's math of adding and multiplication to work on your behalf. Be ready for my miraculous power to rule and reign wherever you set your feet and declare my Kingdom is here. For I am reclaiming my people for a new task and a new vision. It is also time for my leaders of ministries to pull down walls of indifference that has crept in. This has brought isolation, competition, and a mind set of not working with other brothers and sister in the Lord, which leads to my Kingdom building. So reach out to me, and I will open the doors and show you who to link arms with and who has a similar vision for me. Thus saith the Lord!”
