

Prophecy Given At Word of Life

Sunday, 5/21/06 10:00AM Service

“My people you do not understand. You are not seeing clearly. My people this end time demands a revelation of who I am and my Kingdom. The things of the past will not be sufficient for this day and the things of this day will not be sufficient for your future. You will need a revelation of me and my kingship and my dominion.

You do not understand. Your mind is not comprehending. You think you see how I work. You think you know how I operate. And on a very elementary level, you do, but I am Life. And I have come to give you life. You must understand. Take your stand to be under me. Did you hear me? Take your stand to place yourself under me. my rule, my thinking, my ways, my desires, my dreams, my goals, my plans, my authority, my might, my omnipotence, my omniscience, my omnipresence. Place yourself under me and you will stand; and you will understand. You will understand that the ways this world sees are not the ways of my Kingdom. You will understand that the ways this world accomplishes and gets things done are not of My kingdom. You will see that the benefits or the rewards that this world looks to are not the most important in My Kingdom. Seek you first my Kingdom and my way of doing things and you will not have to seek them - they'll be added to you. Set your hearts, set your minds, set your emotions, set your being to see my Kingdom as you have never seen it before. Let your mind conform to me. Allow yourself to conform to me, and my Way and my Realm - so that my Kingdom will shine and flow and dwell in you and through you.”
