Message from the Lord given through Joseph Samsa

“I am the Good Shepherd and My sheep hear my voice. And you are My people. You are My sheep. And your condition directly reflects on Me. I have given you everything you need for life... everything you need for prosperity... everything you need to advance. I am the one that leads you beside the still waters. I am the one that gives you the green pastures. I am the one that prepares the table in the presence of your enemy’s. But you, My sheep, must partake! You must partake! You must listen to My voice... for the world is looking upon you... and they see your condition! They see if you’re fearful. They see if you’re weak. They see your frailties. But I have given you life and life abundantly! I have paid the price for victory over all things!

So, My sheep... My people – partake of what I have given you! Strengthen yourselves through the Word! Strengthen yourselves through prayer! Strengthen yourselves through the Spirit that I have given you! My Word says, ‘Be strong in your inner man... by the Spirit that I have given you... THEN you will be a light shining on a hill! THEN you will be a shining city! THEN you will be a witness for me. As they look upon you, they will not see you but they will see the Glory of My Father. They will see a People, a Chosen People, set aside. A royal priesthood that will do the work that has been given to Me... and I give to you to be that sweet smelling savor of life – that the world may smell of you... that the world may touch of you... that those that are lost may see the reflection of Me. In My sheep... in My sheep.

Partake, partake, partake.”
