

Word from the Lord

Given through Doreen Samsa

Message given in Tongues, then the interpretation:

“It is I, it is Jesus! I have looked with eyes of compassion. My heart aches... for my very own are lost! They are in pain, they hurt. They cry and they moan!

It is your time, it is your time, it is YOUR... YOUR TIME! My heart you will take on... My heart you will take in upon you. You will speak life! You will speak forth truth! You will speak to those who are in need of my Salvation! It is your time! Do you hear me? It is your time! Do not wait... do not grow weary! Do not become complacent because it is your time. It is now.”
